Where am I covered?

- ✓ The geographical limits of the insurance are shown on the schedule.

What are my Obligations?

- You must give complete and accurate answers to any questions you are asked relating to the insurance at the beginning of the insurance or when making changes to it.
- You must notify us or your broker of any changes to the information you have provided which happen before or during the period of insurance
- You must pay us the full amount of the premium by the date(s) specified on your invoice. We may cancel your policy if you do not do this.
- Throughout the period of insurance, you must, at all times, take all reasonable steps to ensure the continued health, safety and general well-being of the horse and ensure that all those who have care, custody or control of the horse do the same. This includes arranging check-ups by a veterinary surgeon at least annually, appropriate inoculations, parasite control and farriery.
- You must provide us or your broker with a Veterinary Certificate, or if permitted by us a Declaration of Health, and any other documentation requested by us as evidence of the horse's health. However, submitting such documents does not alter your duty to take proper care of your horse.
- You should review the sum insured shown on the schedule on a regular basis to ensure it accurately reflects the fair market value of the horse.
- In the event of any accidental injury, illness, or disease, you must at your own expense appoint a qualified veterinary surgeon to attend the horse as soon as practicable. You must also advise us or your broker of the injury or illness as soon as practicable and move the horse to a clinic if we advise you to do this.

- Where the horse has died or has been humanely destroyed, you must have an independent veterinary surgeon carry out a post-mortem and allow us to carry one out as well if we choose.
- Prior to the commencement date of this insurance there must have been no theft or attempted theft of your equine property, or threat against you or your equine property whether insured, insured elsewhere or uninsured. In the event of theft, you must as soon as practicable both inform us or your broker and report the theft to the local police.

When and how do I pay?

We or your broker will advise you of the full details of when to pay and the options for payment

When does cover start and end?

Your insurance will start and end on the dates and times shown on the schedule.

How do I cancel the contract?

If you wish to cancel your insurance, please contact us or your broker.

You can cancel your insurance within 14 days of the later of either the date you entered into the contract, or the date you received your policy documentation.

We will provide a full refund of the premium paid unless you have made a claim on the insurance. For certain types of short-term cover, we will not refund any premium.

After the 14-day cooling off period we may refund you the premium paid, subject to a deduction for the time for which you have been covered, unless you have made a claim on the insurance.
