What are my obligations?

- You must answer the questions we ask you honestly and with reasonable care and furnish to us any documents we request.
- You and the driver of your car must take all reasonable steps to avoid injury, loss or damage.
- You must keep your car in a safe and roadworthy condition and lock it when it is unattended.
- You must not submit any claim that is fraudulent or exaggerated.
- You must notify us immediately of any incident that might result in a claim.
- You must tell your insurance intermediary if your personal details change or there is a material change to the risk. For example, you must tell us if you change your car, your address, who you want to be covered to drive your car, or if you have any penalty points or convictions.
- You or any person expecting to be covered must not admit liability for any accident.
- You or a driver of your car must not respond to any letter or court writ from any person claiming against you, them or both of you.
- You and the driver of your car must help us to defend a claim and cooperate with us in doing so, and to the best of your ability.
- You must allow us to defend or otherwise deal with any claim against you or another driver in any manner we see fit.
- You or the driver of your car must allow us to take legal action in either your name, their name or both of your names to recover amounts we have to pay, where possible.
- You must repay any amount claimed that the law requires us to pay, but that this contract does not cover.

When and how do I pay?

You must pay or arrange to pay before cover starts. You must pay the premium to your insurance intermediary who will advise you what payment methods they accept. Your insurance intermediary may advise you about financing options. Such finance is not provided by us.

When does cover start and end?

Cover starts on the date and time agreed with your insurance intermediary and once you have paid or arranged to pay the premium. Cover will last for one year, expiring at 23:59 hours the day before the start date anniversary, unless you or we cancel it beforehand.

How do I cancel the contract?

You can cancel the policy at any time. If you cancel within 20 days of the policy start date we will refund Your premium, less a proportionate amount for the days that You were insured by Us.

Outside of this 20-day period, if You have not made or incurred any claims during the current Period of Insurance, of the premium for the current period of insurance We or Ornella Underwriting Limited may keep:
